PUBG Gameplay Insights

PUBG is considered by many to be the best battle royale game for a long time. What makes it popular is that it provides a lot of features which are not seen in other games of the same genre. Let us look at some of the best features which helped PUBG to win the Best Multiplayer Game of 2017.

1. The Gameplay

PUBG's gameplay revolves around 100 players who are parachuted into an island which will eventually shrink down with time. The Goal is to be the last one to survive. Upon landing, they are armed with nothing so they must loot types of equipment which include weapons and other gears to help them kill others at the same time prevent being killed by others. Players can enter the game as a solo player or a team of four. As such the gameplay is filled with fun and unexpected moments as well as high tension situations. The gameplay thus ensures that there is a good mix of Fun, Action and Drama. This provides that players are hooked to their screens devising strategies and also waiting for the next moment to take down someone.

2. Weapons.

The weapon style in PUBG is nothing short of Amazing. To make your weapon most effective and efficient as possible, you must search and loot for individual parts. Some parts which are available include a Suppressor to silence gunshots and minimise gun flare, Scopes with varying magnification power to scout and take down opponents and red dot sights to increase accuracy. These parts do not come attached to the guns, so one has to search and attach them according to the needs of the situation. This makes the game that much more interesting and can be considered a highlight of the game.

3. Duo mode and Squad mode.

Another feature of PUBG is that it allows players to play either solo, as a duo or in a squad of four. While Playing in duo and squad mode constant communication among players is key. Communicating with each other increases chances of survival among fellow players. This communication also brings people together and makes the gaming experience that much immersive and fun. At the end of the day players also create memories and strengthen bonds between each other.
